

DR. PALMER IN ABBEVILLE.

LONG CANE'S CENTENNIAL!

Brilliant Sermon—Flue Address—Big Crowd.

On Thursday night of last week, Dr. B. M. Palmer, of New Orleans, preached in the Abbeville Presbyterian Church...

We do not undertake to give a synopsis of this sermon because of a lack of space. But the speaker's wonderful command of language, his copious vocabulary, his clear enunciation, his logic and his familiarity with the Scriptures combined to make a sermon of unsurpassed power.

At Long Cane the next day the services were of a most interesting nature. They were held in honor of the one hundredth birth-day of that historic old church.

177—WELCOME—1884

On the stand were Dr. Palmer, Rev. Messrs. Martin, Pearson, Rushton, Bradley, Dr. Sloan and Dr. Lindsay, and Mr. Leroy Wilson, who was elected an Elder in the Church in 1850.

Mr. Pearson, the pastor, welcomed those present in a few kindly words, and spoke feelingly of a member of the church ninety-four years old, who had been confined to her bed for four years.

Mr. Martin opened the proceedings with prayer, after which Mr. W. A. Templeton read an interesting historical sketch of Presbyterianism in upper Carolina and of Long Cane Church.

Dr. Palmer arose at the conclusion of the reading of the essay and asked the congregation to sing the one hundredth psalm, which he said was Watts' finest paraphrase, and to sing to the tune from which it should never be dissociated—Old Hundred, which musical authorities considered an epic in music.

Dr. Palmer then read from 47th Ezekiel and 22d Revelation, and took for his text the last verse of the 9th verse of 47th Ezekiel, which is rendered thus: "And every thing shall live whither the water floweth."

The gifted speaker in showing the application that exists between the prophecy of Ezekiel and the vision that John saw, when on the island of Patmos, was peculiarly happy and forcible.

In graphic language and beautiful periods, he reviewed the circumstances and conditions under which these visions came to Ezekiel and John. They were symbolic and figurative he said. The water of life of which they spoke in the passages he had read was emblematic of the grace and the free and boundless love of God, which grace and love bore its healing power to whoever accepted it.

In justice to Dr. Palmer we have refrained from attempting to give any outline of his discourse. Nothing but the reproduction in its complete form of the whole sermon could convey any proper idea of it.

At its conclusion Dr. Palmer asked the congregation to sing the Marcellites hymn of the Church, "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

Dr. Lindsay pronounced the blessing on the vast concourse of people and Long Cane's Centennial was done.

On Saturday and Sunday Dr. Palmer preached at Greenville church, and on Sunday night at Due West.

The question is often asked, where would you go for your groceries? As a friend I would advise you not to go to Charleston or Augusta, neither to Baltimore or New York, but go to A. E. ROGER'S Wholesale Store, at Abbeville, S. C. Mr. Rogers represent some of the largest grocery houses in the United States and can sell you goods to a better advantage than you could buy them in market.

PERSONAL.

Maj. R. A. Griffin, is in Abbeville.

Capt. L. H. Rykard was in town last Monday.

We saw Capt. W. E. Cothran in town Monday.

Mr. Allen Parker is clerking at White Brothers.

Capt. Rogers, Ninety-Six, is on the Grand Jury.

Capt. J. R. Carville has sold his place at Whitehall, to Mr. Kay.

Dr. M. C. Taggart, of Greenwood, is out again, after his serious illness.

Sore eyes are prevailing around Greenwood. Senator Maxwell has them.

Colonel Blake and Mr. Giles, of Greenwood, are attending Court.

Mr. Mattison, a prominent young lawyer from Anderson has been attending Court.

We had a pleasant visit from Mr. Ordiorne, representing Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass.

Capt. King, of Ninety Six, is attending Court. He is driving a very fine 2 1/2 year old colt.

Rev. Edward Miles, returned to Summerville on Saturday. The Director's car was sent up for him.

Mr. E. T. Calhoun, of Monterey is now at the store of Messrs. Wardlaw & Edwards, where he will be pleased to serve his friends.

Miss Emma C. Ferrin, daughter of Capt. J. W. Perrin, left on Monday for Due West Female College.

Mrs. Marshall returned from Greenwood with her sister Miss Julia Zeigler, to pay a visit to their father, Major Zeigler.

H. G. Scudday, Esq., who studied law among us and who is now a member of the House from Anderson, is attending our Court.

Miss Boozer, who has been visiting friends in Abbeville, during the summer, returned to her home in Columbia, on Saturday.

Mr. Gaines, of the Chronicle and Constitutionalist is in town. He represents one of the best dailies in the whole South.

Mr. E. A. Mims, of Edgefield has bought a part of Mr. G. R. Caldwell's place. We are glad to welcome Mr. Mims to our County.

Mr. J. B. Wier and his lovely young wife spent a few days in town with his relations. They are happy, and we trust that happiness will never be dimmed by a single sorrow.

Misses Aylette Chalmers, Winton Parks and Lavinia Zeigler, went to Columbia on Saturday last, to enter the Columbia Female College. Thus Abbeville sends a bright trio to represent her in that excellent institution.

DEATHS.

Mr. Wm. Buchanan, who lived at Buck Level, died last Sunday, aged 82 years.

Mr. S. M. Bowen, of Anderson County, near Antreville, died on Monday 13th after a long and painful illness.

Mr. John Wait's body was brought up from Columbia last week and buried at Greenwood. He died at his home in Columbia, of congestion of the lungs.

Mr. John Hunter, a bright and promising son of Mrs. B. C. Hunter, and a nephew of Dr. J. C. Maxwell, died at his mother's last week, of consumption. He was about 21 years old.

Malaria Poison.

ROME, GA., May 23, 1883.—In 1880 I came from the North to take charge of the gas works in Rome, as superintendent, and after the overflow, which occurred in the spring following, I was very much exposed to malarial poison, and in 1882 found my blood so contaminated with the poison that I was forced to give up business. I was treated by the Rome physicians without relief, their advising me to go North which I did.

The doctors North told me that my only hope was to return to the milder climate, and accordingly I came back to Rome, completely broken down and nearly a skeleton. My trouble finally determined in an abscess of the liver, and nearly every one, (myself included) thought I was doomed to die within a few days. In this condition I was advised by a friend to take Swift's Specific, and I took it just as a drowning man would catch at a straw, but as soon as my system got under the influence of the remedy, the abscess came to a point and burst, passing off without pain. In fifteen days after this I was up at my work, and have since enjoyed excellent health.

Every sufferer from malarial poison should take Swift's Specific.

Merry Marriage Bells.

From the recherche affair on the 15th instant at the residence of Dr. T. J. Hester, at which Miss Lena Hester and Mr. J. T. Hester were united in wedlock, wife, come echoes of joy and happiness. And in the midst of this joy the beautiful young bride pauses to remember her friends, and make us the recipients of a bountiful supply of her wedding cake.

A novel feature of their wedding was that Col. and Mrs. Tolman, aged, respectively 77 and 84, accompanied by little Miss Lizzie Marshall and Mr. Jenna Link, played the part of attendants upon our young friends.

We hope this young couple know how heartily we wish that it may be granted to them "in health and prosperity long to live."

Organization of Two Presbyterian Churches.

The committee, Revs. J. O. Lindsay, D. D., J. L. Martin, H. G. Fennel, and Ruling Elders, R. H. Wardlaw and J. R. Cunningham, appointed by the Presbytery to organize a Church at Warrenville, will meet for that purpose on Friday afternoon, October 31st, at 3 o'clock.

The committee, Revs. J. L. Martin, J. O. Lindsay, D. D., W. G. Neville, and Ruling Elders A. P. Boozer and J. L. Leslie, appointed by Presbytery to organize a Church at Troy, will meet for that purpose on Wednesday afternoon, November 5th, at 4 o'clock. The dedication of the new church-building will take place at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Schedule Changes.

Change of schedule, The South Carolina Railroad has changed its Schedule as follows: Leave Columbia, 7:48 a. m. and 5:27 p. m. Leave Charleston, 7 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. Leave Augusta, 3:50 p. m.

The Atlantic Coast line schedule is changed as follows: Leave Charleston, 7 a. m., arrive Charleston, 9:45 p. m. Leave Columbia, 5:30 p. m., arrives 11 a. m.

We will publish all schedules next week in full.

Well Deserved Praise.

"W. C. Benet, nominee for Presidential Elector in the Third District, was next introduced, and was greeted with long continued applause and yells. Some citizens rose to leave, stopped at the door to hear him begin then staved there to hear him finish and wished for more."

The above is from the Greenville News and shows that our distinguished townsman is winning renown as a public speaker.

Blind Tom.

Those who have not heard this musical prodigy will be glad of the opportunity to hear him on Thursday night, and those who have heard him once will seize the opportunity to hear him again. He gives one of his inimitable performances in the Armory on Thursday night. Admission, 50 cents. Reserved seats 75 cents.

Sale of Valuable House and Lot.

We are informed that Mrs. Mary A. Perrin has sold her house and lot in town on the Pendleton road, just a mile from the Court House to Mr. Francis Henry at the price of $2,200. This is a valuable lot with a fine dwelling on it and with a few needed improvements it will be a most desirable place.

NINETY-SIX NEWS.

It has been splendid weather for picking cotton, but very poor for sowing grain.

Ninety-Six is next to Abbeville Court House in the amount of money contributed for campaign purposes.

Rev. W. G. Neville, who has been absent from his ministerial work for several months has returned.

One of our doctors had a lively foot-race to catch the train in Chappells a few days ago.

Mr. J. A. Anderson, son of Dr. W. L. Anderson, has left Ninety-Six to attend a course of lectures in the Medical College of Charleston.

Chappells is rapidly improving. Six or eight store houses have been built since the cyclone in the Spring.

Ninety-Six will be well represented at the coming State Fair. She will make a splendid exhibition of her stock and farm products.

It was quite an event in the history of our town the other day when there were two lawyers pitted against each other in the Trial Justice court. Very a change has come over the spirit of our dreams.

Several weeks ago a black chicken thief was shot in the act of stealing chickens from the poultry house of a Ninety-Sixian. The thief was about the size of an ordinary walking cane, and had partly swallowed already, a chicken about the size of a man's fist.

The severe drought has not ended yet. From the clouds it is just that "hoat in the air, we would suppose that nature is in sympathy with the Democracy, and had determined that every man should wear a red shirt, nolens volens.

A negro man came into town last week wearing an expression on his countenance that bore a striking resemblance to moonlight on a desolate landscape. He was in search of a Trial Justice. His wife had been beating him and he wanted "justice."

Capt. Rogers is authority on Jerseys. He has a small herd and has embarked in the heretofore profitable enterprise of a Jersey stock farm. He can tell you a "whopper" where a Jersey cow produced eighteen pounds of butter at one churning.

There is no political excitement down here, but while we are pursuing the noiseless tenor of our way, if necessary we will show that.

"Still the watch fire will burn, still the watchman will walk, and still the fire will burn, and still the watchman will walk, and still the fire will burn, and still the watchman will walk."

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

Mr. H. D. REESE, of Abbeville, is prepared to do all kinds of repairing of Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, and will pay all express charges on work sent to him from stations on the C. & G. Road. He always keeps in stock a handsome line of Jewellery and Watches at moderate prices. Send in your orders. Address, H. D. REESE, Abbeville, S. C.
